

GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Marked the Democratic Meetings Last Night at Tuckahoe, Orangeburg and Burr Oaks.

The true-blue Democrats of Tuckahoe originated the single X idea that has been the feature of the campaign clubs organized in Mason County of late years. They re-organized their club last night and enrolled thirty-five members. This is a larger number of members than the club had two years ago, and is an evidence of the interest and enthusiasm in that section. Ex-Sheriff J. C. Pickett was chosen President of the club and Mr. Clifton Osborne Secretary.

The meeting last night was a rousing one, there being a large crowd out to hear the speakers, Commonwealth's Attorney Saltee and Deputy County Clerk Thomas Slattery.

The second meeting of the present campaign at Orangeburg was held last night, and it is conceded on all hands that it was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held at that point. The crowd in attendance is placed at 300. Mr. A. O. Stanley and Mr. John L. Chamberlain were the speakers and they were loudly cheered and applauded. The club enrolled eighteen additional members.

Another enthusiastic meeting was held at Key's School House last night, by the Burr Oaks Democratic Club. Rousing speeches were delivered by Judge Phister and Mr. F. P. O'Donnell. The club added several new members and is growing right along.

A Democratic meeting was held at Salem School House, near Peed, Tuesday night. The speaker was Mr. James Allen, of Nepton, and the crowd had an old-time love feast.

The following announcements are made:

Mayslick, Thursday night, October 18th—A. O. Stanley and C. L. Saltee.
Washington, Thursday night, October 18th—Judge A. E. Cole and George W. Sulser.

Lewisburg, Saturday night, October 20—Judge G. S. Wall and L. W. Galbraith.
Helena, Friday night, October 19—James H. Saltee and John L. Whitaker.

AN ILL-TIMED MAIL.

McKinley Neglected to Revise His Calamity Speech to Fit the Big Industrial Revival.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., October 15th.—Governor McKinley's tour through Michigan was spectacular in the extreme, and it did not lack in comedy.

At Owosso, for instance, he spoke under the eaves of a furniture factory that is working twelve hours a day to keep up with the orders that have been pouring in since early September.

At Ionia two factories are running overtime with all the men that can be crowded in, while a banner spanning the street just beyond where McKinley spoke told the multitude that "our factories are running twelve hours a day as a result of the Wilson bill."

McKinley did not notice this banner until his attention was called to it in the middle of his mail, and then all he could say was that he was glad that the Ionia workmen were enjoying a fair share of that prosperity which had come to the English workmen as a result of the Wilson enactment.

In this city the conditions were not auspicious for depressed spirits, but Mr. McKinley delivered the same old speech without revision to meet existing circumstances. One year ago all but three of the factories in this city were shut down. Every factory in town is to-day working to the utmost capacity, and several of them are working nights. And yet Mr. McKinley tried to make 4,000 people believe that the industrial situation has never been so dark.

The Mason County Teachers' Association.

To Test the Question Whether Oil Can Be Found in Paying Quantities at Ruggles.

Rev. D. P. Holt, Messrs. I. M. Lane, John T. Parker, Jos. H. Dodson, John Walsh and Wm. Johnson, Rev. T. B. Stratton and Rev. Mr. Grizzley spent Wednesday at Ruggles camp ground inspecting the oil well that is being sunk at that point.

A depth of 150 feet has been reached and while the flow of oil has grown stronger, yet it has not been found in paying quantities.

Mr. Danby, the contractor, believes that a fine supply of oil can be found at a depth of 700 or 800 feet. It was decided to organize a company, raise a fund and thoroughly test the question. The people in the neighborhood are interested and the company will no doubt soon be organized.

PORTSMOUTH TRIBUNE: "In honor of Miss Hope Watkin's charming guest, Miss May Hord, a delightfully informal little card party was given last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leigh Watkins, Jr. For once, no prizes were in store for the players, the games being played 'just for fun,' as some one remarked. After cards, dainty refreshments were served and dancing indulged in until a late hour, when the guests departed for home, declaring the entire evening to have been one of unusual enjoyment."

AT West Union this week, John Lacy was acquitted of the murder of Robert Rankin four years ago. Lacy was a tenant on the farm of Rankin. Rankin told his neighbors that Lacy was a coward, that he, Rankin, had made him get out of his own tobacco patch; that he was going to run him out of his cornfield and make him leave the farm. He then went to the field where Lacy was husking corn and no person except Lacy knows what took place; but an hour or two later Rankin was found lying in the field with the entire lower portion of his face shot away. Lacy fled, and his whereabouts up to last spring was unknown. Sheriff Dunlap then learned he was living in Fleming County, Kentucky, under the name of John Wesley. He was arrested, brought back and tried, with the above result.
